BREAKFAST FOR CHAMPIONS SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

THE ADVOCACY NETWORK ON DISABILITIES champions the rights of individuals with intellectual, developmental, and other disabilities by promoting inclusion, providing services, and advancing systems change.

Our champions are your friends, neighbors, co-workers and customers.

DID YOU KNOW?

People with disabilities have $220 billion in discretionary spending power –
more than the pre-teen and teen markets combined.

WHAT WE DO

- Link to critical services, 1,000 individuals with disabilities and their families
- Provide emergency financial assistance for rent, utilities, food, and medical supplies
- Train programs funded by The Children's Trust to include children with disabilities
- Teach businesses to provide excellent service to customers with disabilities
- Educate decision makers about the need for increased funding and services

WHAT IS THE BREAKFAST FOR CHAMPIONS?

The Advocacy Network on Disabilities' 18th Annual Breakfast for Champions is an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments of 20 of our family members, friends, co-workers, and neighbors who have developmental disabilities.* The Advocacy Network on Disabilities will also recognize elected officials, corporations, and community members for their support. More than 300 people will share the excitement and pride of this day.

HERE ARE SOME EXAMPLES OF OUR CHAMPIONS' SUCCESSES

Aleschia is a culinary arts graduate working in a school.

Franklin sews uniforms for our troops.

Wendy and Michael are employed by local grocery stores.

Daisy volunteers at the Humane Society.

Meghan ran her own shredding business.

* Individuals with developmental disabilities have intellectual disabilities, cerebral palsy, autism, spina bifida and other conditions occurring before age 22 that will require lifelong supports and services.
