BREAKFAST FOR CHAMPIONS SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

THE ADVOCACY NETWORK ON DISABILITIES champions the rights of individuals with intellectual, developmental, and other disabilities by promoting inclusion, providing services, and advancing systems change.

*Our champions are your friends,
family members, neighbors,
co-workers and customers.*

DID YOU KNOW?

People with disabilities have $220 billion in discretionary spending power – more than the pre-teen and teen markets combined.

WHAT WE DO

- Link individuals with disabilities and their families to needed supports and services
- Provide counseling, in-home supports, and emergency assistance for rent, utilities and food
- Through training and coaching, increase the capacity of our community's programs (such as early learning centers, after-school programs, and camps), to include children with disabilities
- Increase the number of children with disabilities who are attending programs with their typically developing peers
- Teach businesses how to welcome customers with disabilities, and to provide them with excellent service

WHAT IS THE BREAKFAST FOR CHAMPIONS?

The Advocacy Network on Disabilities' 19th Annual Breakfast for Champions is an opportunity to recognize the accomplishments of 20 of our family members, friends, co-workers, and neighbors who have developmental disabilities.* More than 250 people will share the excitement and pride of this day.

MEET SOME OF OUR PAST CHAMPIONS

Aleschia is a culinary arts graduate working in a school.

Franklin sews uniforms for our troops.

Wendy and Michael are employed by local grocery stores.

Daisy volunteers at the Humane Society.

Meghan ran her own shredding business.

* Individuals with developmental disabilities have intellectual disabilities, cerebral palsy, autism, spina bifida and other conditions occurring before age 22 that will require lifelong supports and services.
